- Finow, Grossonhain, Brandis or Alt-Locanewitz airfields, which had been partly evacuated by fighter units in October. The observation that division headquarters, and at least elements of ground organizations of the transferred fighter regiments have remained at these fields indicates that the air units have probably left the Russian Mone only temperarily, possibly for reequipment with another type of aircraft. A train carrying aircraft crates, observed on 8 November operating from the USOR to Grossenhain, may indicate that the transferred units are beginning to return.

On 16 November, 30 MIG-15s, probably aircraft were first observed in Koethen. The regimen	it may have come from the USSR,
